FRIDAY 19TH FEBRUARY 2010

STYLE THE KEY TO WINNING LEXUS FASHIONS ON THE FIELD

ONE OF THE MAIN ATTRACTIONS ON WATPAC INTER DOMINION GRAND FINAL DAY, MARCH 7, WON'T BE ON THE TRACK... IT WILL BE OFF IT!

The Lexus Of Parramatta 'Fashions On The Field' is sure to attract quality and style from both sexes, especially the 'fillies'.

It has become somewhat of a religion for ladies to dress up in their best frocks and gowns when attending big carnival racedays at thoroughbred meetings, and it shouldn't be any different on Grand Final day at Tabcorp Park Menangle.

Fashion and etiquette queen June Dally Watkins will be the main judge for the Fashions On The Field, with well known harness racing identity Ann Hancock and Balmain Millner, Wendi Nutt ably supporting her.

Best Dressed Female and Male will each receive a trip for two to Queenstown, New Zealand including airfares and four nights accommodation. There are also many other prizes up for grabs, including one for Best Hat.

Wendi Nutt, of Philadelphia Philpot, will judge Best Hat and the winner will receive a $500 gift voucher from her studio.

Lexus Of Parramatta, a fine sponsor for the harness racing industry for sometime, was readily keen to step in and be a part of the Fashions On The Field.

With the Lexus brand being one of prestige and class, it is only appropriate that the Fashions On The Field carry a sponsor of that standing and magnitude.
