LEN SMITH TO BE A 'MINI MIRACLE'

EARLY INDICATIONS ARE THAT THIS NEXT WEEK'S $100,000 LEN SMITH MILE AT TABCORP PARK MENANGLE IS SHAPING UP TO BE A 'MINI MIRACLE MILE'.

To be conducted on Friday April 23, the Tabcorp Len Smith Mile is likely to have several of the leading pacers that are currently racing in Australasia.

Naturally, four-time Inter Dominion champion Blacks A Fake will be missing as he is spelling, however, his stablemates Atomic Ark and Western Cam are likely starters in the Len Smith.

Watpac ID10 placegetter Smoken Up, who won the inaugural Len Smith Mile, should also contest this year's version for trainer-driver Lance Justice.

Justice is also likely to aim Watpac ID10 Consolation winner Our Malabar at the Group One.

When you throw into the mix the likes of World Champion Mr Feelgood, dual Miracle Mile winner Be Good Johnny as well as the very talented Sammy Maguire, the Len Smith is looking like one of the better races on the racing calendar.

Connections of New Zealander Bettors Strike have also indicated they could make the trip across the Tasman Sea.

And what about NSW's latest star Intoxicated?

The Michael Siejka-trained son of Briosio Hanover has won nine consecutive races and been a giant killer along the way!

The Australasian record for a mile stands at 1:50.8, which was set by Monkey King in taking out last year's SEW Eurodrive Miracle Mile at Menangle.

Will that time be tested by the 10 combatants in the Len Smith? Only time will tell.

The Tabcorp Len Smith Mile isn't the only feature on the April 23 program, with the Cordina Chicken Farms Ladyship Mile, Christian Cullen NSW Derby, Australian Pacing Gold 2YO C&G Final and Watpac Carousel all sure to be highlights.
